DREW CANNING COMPANY SOLD TO HUNT FOODS OF SAN FRANCISCO

'round town

with Betty Allen...

An incident occurred one day last week which leads or should lead to some serious thought. Two men, one reputedly intoxicated, had an altercation in the vicinity of the Post Office. One man, according to witnesses, slugged the other heartily, knocking him against the bumper of a parked car and cutting his head wide open. Fortunately for the injured man, one of Campbell's local citizens who was passing by, took charge of the situation, secured a doctor, and sent the man to the hospital via the Campbell Taxi Co., paying the fare out of his own pocket.

There are several ramifications to this story. In the first place, the man who did the hitting and who was, according to the witnesses again, insulted by the man, reputedly drunk, might not have depended on his fists had there been an officer of the law close by to call; to go even further back, the allegedly intoxicated man might not have been intoxicated, had he been arrested on previous occasions or had other examples of drunkenness been punishd more frequently. In the second place, there was a public disturbance with no one in authority to take charge. In the third place, there was an emergency, as the injured man was badly cut, with no one to take charge. The Good Samaritan should not have had to take care of the situation, nor pay the cab fare for the hospital trip himself.

We cannot expect the highway patrol, kept busy enough with the large rural areas and highways, to give the service a community this size should have. We have already had one of the worst crimes in the country, and other incidents such as this. One cannot help but wonder how many more such things must happen before we realize that we have grown to such a point that full-time protection is not only desirable but necessary.

Further proof of Campbell's growth is revealed in the fact that the Oddfellows' meeting hall is rented every week night except Saturdays in the month and many organizations and groups anxious to form have no place to meet.

Removal of the price control May 7 from fresh apricots, sweet cherries, plums and Italian prunes is expected to put the selling of the fruit on a quality basis. Cherry picking will probably start around June 1, if the warm weather continues, according to the farm advisors, and this year's crop is expected to be of high quality.

The feminine readers of this column would have loved the style show which Rachel took me to in San Francisco one day last week. Presented in the new location in which "Lady Alice" and "Lil Alice" styles are now designed and made, the show featured California play clothes, full of color and imagination. United Airlines had a hand in the affair, and the models, including the famous Baker twins, emerged from a realistic-appearing airplane. If you want a practical hint or two, I can offer you this—skirts are longer in what is known as the "Waltz" length, and the hip line should now be square.

Local Ownership Ends For Oldest Industrial Plant

After several weeks of negotiations papers were signed yesterday which closed the sale of Drew Canning Co. to Hunt Foods Inc. Involved in the transfer are general partners in the Campbell cannery composed of F. M. Drew, Ross Trowbridge, Lawrence J. Campodonico, Paul Rea and Frank Silva.

Hunt Foods Inc., a large-scale canning concern, will immediately take over management of the local concern and present canning operations will continue.

All members of Drew Canning Co. personnel will remain for the present, including F. M. Drew who will act in an advisory capacity for the new owners.

It is believed that the new management intends to develop the Campbell cannery in line with the company's expansion program.

The huge plant grew from the experiments of J. C. Ainsley on his Winchester Road ranch. His operations, carried on in a shed, were moved to Harrison Ave. by the railroad in 1892 and a market for canned fruit developed in England through Ainsley's brother.

In 1929 the J. C. Ainsley Packing Co. employed approximately 750 men at the height of the season and produced about 300,000 cases of canned fruit each year.

When the plant was purchased by Drew and his associates, the present enlarged buildings were the result of increased output and contain the most modern canning machinery.

Public Meeting Scheduled

On the zoning front all seems to be quiet, at least temporarily, although scheduled for Monday, May 20, is another public meeting of the Campbell Taxpayers' Association for the purpose of discussing industrial zoning for the town. At this meeting, to be held in the Library hall at 8 p m., candidates running for office will be invited to present themselves before the audience in order that everyone may have a chance to identify these men.

This will include those seeking office as supervisor, justice of the peace, sheriff and constable.

The petition of Dan Rose for rezoning on Latimer and Winchester was officially withdrawn by his attorney after the application had been denied by the County Planning Commission but before it had gone to the Board of Supervisors for approval of the decision.

At the last meeting of the board an application by A. Vander Sander for permission to build a filling station on the southwest corner of Hamilton and San Jose-Los Gatos Road was granted.

Since Mervyn (Buster) Davenport, who wishes to operate a flying field midway between Los Gatos and Campbell, was out of the city last week, the County Planning Commission has postponed a hearing on his application for a permit until Wednesday, May 22, at 2:15 p. m. A petition with the signatures of 55 property owners in the vicinity of his Mozart Road field was presented to the commission objecting to the operation of the airport. Chief reasons given were the presence of tricky air currents which, the petitioners believed, would make flying hazardous for beginners and the danger to fruit and vegetable crops from the amount of dust raised by the planes taking off and landing.

Board to Replace James Dent Soon

At Monday's regular high school board meeting, the trustees considered a number of applications for the position of high school principal which will be vacant when James Dent leaves at the end of the school year to accept a position in Vallejo. His resignation was accepted at a special meeting of the school board last week. Those applicants in which the board is interested will be interviewed later at special meetings of the board.

In his new position Dent will head both the Vallejo High School and Junior College. Before coming to Campbell two years ago, he served as vice-principal of the San Jose High School. At one time the Campbell educator was a high school instructor in Vallejo.

During his stay in this locality, Dent has taken an active part in community affairs. He has served as Boy Scout district chairman and as vice-president of the Campbell Kiwanis club. In addition he is a past president of the San Jose Civitan club, a member of the board of directors of the Santa Clara County Council of Social Agenvies and of the Boys' Work committee of the YMCA.

Serving as superintendent of Campbell Union High school district before Dent was Willard H. Van Dyke.

Community and Youth Councils To Meet

Thursday, May 23, has been set as the meeting day for Campbell's Community Council which will meet in conjunction with the Youth Council. At this meeting it is planned to set up a budget, to select a manager for the next Community Chest drive and to discuss youth plans for the summer.

Herbert Shadle is president of both the Community Council and the Youth Council. Secretary of the Community Council is Mrs. H. F. Cousins, and secretary of the Youth Council is ELben Howard.

Rod and Gun Club Have Barbecue

The newly-organized Campbell Rod and Gun Club held a barbecue at Wieland's Brewery yesterday at 6:30.

Officers for the group, elected at the last meeting, are: Paul Sinn, president; Walter Dahms, vice-president; Bryce Whitmore, recording secretary; Don Bright, financial secretary; Tom Smith, sergeant-at-arms. The board of directors includes Tom Shaves, Ed Cox, Lloyd Smith, Tom Smith and Louis Gagaliaso.

Grammar School Students Entertain at Exchange Assembly

More than 110 students of the Campbell Elementary school who are members of the orchestra and glee club entertained pupils of Jefferson Union school at an exchange assembly last Wednesday morning. The program was under the direction of Richard Gordon and Miss Dorothy Wilkinson. Jefferson school students will entertain at the Campbell school soon.

Returns to Campbell to Live

Mrs. Clara Eagleston, a former Campbell resident who has been living in San Jose for the past year has returned to Campbell to make her home. For the present she is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. H. Phillips, 60 Railroad Ave.

Legion Team Loses To Camp McQuaide

Slated to be the first league game for the local Legion nine, the game Sunday was called a practice game as word was received from the manager of the league that play will not start for another week.

The Camp McQuaide team, composed of players with high school and college experience, proved to be too much for the Legion nine. Soldiers Moore and Bolin pitched for the winners and allowed but four hits.

The Campbell Legion team, although on the short end of the score most of the game, threatened several times in evening the score. Manuel Rose pitched for the losers and allowed but five hits. Olmetti led the batters with a triple and two singles.

Next Sunday the Legion nine will meet a pick-up team from Campbell at 2:00 p. m. at the high school diamond. Any veterans desiring to play, please contact any Legion member.

After the game members of both teams were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weeks where they enjoyed refreshments.

Youth Evangelist To Speak Here

Starting this Sunday, May 19, Reverend Donald K. Skaggs, youth evangelist, will be speaking every night except Monday and Saturday at the Assemblies of God church.

Rev. Donald K. Skaggs

Besides being an interesting, illustrative preacher, Evangelist Skaggs is an accomplished trumpeter and vocalist, having sung in the quartette of the "Haven of Rest", a nation-wide radio program.

The pastor, Reverend Herbert L. Johnson, extends a hearty invitation for all to attend.

Mother's Day Activities

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stray, their daughter, Miss Helen Stray, and Miss Toshiko Yoshikawa celebrated Mother's Day with a trip to Big Basin.

Now making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Stray is the Rev. Robert Carlson whose family from Berkeley were here to attend Mother's Day services at the Congregational church.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Field motored to Berkeley to attend a Mother's Day tea given in the University of California dormitory, in which their daughter, Bobbie Jo, is social chairman. Carl Field Jr. is now doing his Naval Reserve flying on Wednesdays and usually manages a trip over Campbell.

Vet in Army Hospital

Charles Wiggins, Army veteran of some of the worst Pacific fighting, is receiving treatment at Oak Knoll Hospital in Oakland for malaria contracted in the South Pacific.

School Board Elections Will Be Held Tomorrow

Tomorrow five school districts in the area will elect school trustees who will serve two-year terms. Running for re-election without opposition for the Campbell Union High school district are John D. Blaine and William Lloyd. Other members of the high school board are Joseph Gomes, R. B. Bishop and G. K. Schrader.

At the Campbell Grammar school E. L. Farnham is running for re-election to take his place on the board with W. R. Porter, Lloyd Gardner, Ross Trowbridge and Walter Williams.

One of the most interesting features of tomorrow's elections will be that of Cambrian Elementary school. A trustee is needed to fill the place of Horace Nelson whose term expires, but no one has officially filed and the election will have to be a write-in one. In the event that no one is elected in this manner, the matter will be referred to the County School Board who will appoint someone for the position. The other two members of the Cambrian board are Charles Sartorette and Frank L. Steindorf.

Moreland school offers the only contested election which is between Mrs. George C. Payne, running for re-election, and Fred H. Smith. Other board members in that district are Roy A. Smith and Mrs. Leroy Anderson.

In the Union district Rudolph Mirassou is running for re-election as trustee. Dr. Wyland Morgan and Kenneth Jessen are the other board members.

Fire Department Praised

Fire on Monday afternoon completely destroyed the house owned by Frank Weeks on S. Fourth St., and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bonds. Believed caused by a short in the refrigerator, the blaze was well under way by the time it was discovered and the firemen called. Although surrounded closely by other houses and garages, no damage was done to anything but the Bonds' home. War bonds and personal papers were saved, although Bonds, recently discharged from the service, and his wife were not home at the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonds and Mr. and Mrs. Weeks praised the work of the fire department and said they felt that the volunteer firemen had functioned most satisfactorily.

On the preceding day firemen were called to extinguish a small grass fire.

Midget Auto Racing To Start

San Jose's new $75,000 Speedway Stadium, scheduled to bring to local fans the best in midget auto racing, will definitely open Sunday, May 19, for a 26-week run, it was announced this week by Co-promoters C. H. Mosiman and Ross Page

Offenhauser racers, considered tops in the midget auto circuits, were promised patrons several weeks ago when the United Racing Association sanctioned the track, located on Tully Road, opposite the Hillview golf course entrance.

"Approval of the URA not only means complete use of Offenhauser cars, rated the top vehicles in the sport, but it will bring the best money drivers in the country, including some who will compete in the 500-mile Indianapolis grind on Memorial Day", stated Page.

Mel Hansen, slated to pilot Page's "Page Special" in the eastern race, May 30, is only one of the big-name "iron horse" jockeys who will appear here this year. Opening day will probably see such luminaries as Ed Haddad, Sam Hanks, Danny Oakes, Billy Vukovich and Cal Niday pushing around the quarter-mile oval.

Spectators will be treated to a full afternoon of thrills and chills, according to Mosiman, who indicated there will be approximately eight events in addition to the time trials. The feature race will probably be a 30-lap affair.

Turns of the track are well banked, making for greater speted, and measures 65 feet in width. The straightaways are 50 feet wide, giving the drivers ample space to jockey for position and do more passing than is usually the case. Crash fences guard both turns.

For opening week there will be seating capacity for close to six thousand people. The reserved seat sections are of steel construction while the bleachers are of wood. Page and Mosiman are also listing motorcycle races and rodeos for week-day attendances.

Parking will be provided at the track. Club-room facilities will be available to all.

Neves, and a sister, Mrs. Dick Laden.

Funeral rites were held last Saturday from the residence of Joseph F. Neves, thence to St. Martin's church, where a requiem mass was celebrated Interment was in the Santa Clara Cotholic Cemetery.

Another "Nelson" At Grain Store

The Nelson Brothers of Nelson Brothers Grain Store are so addicted to the name "Nelson", that this week they added another one to their staff. He's Elvin Nelson of San Jose and no relation to the Campbell Nelsons.

Nelson has just been released by the Army, in which he served with the artillery in the European theater.

Orville Johns Brings Family Here

Orville Johns has recently returned from Cozed, Nebraska, where he went to bring his wife and three small children to their new home here on Lovell Road. Johns who is in the watch repairing business, located in the Campbell Hardware Co., has installed a new "Watch Master" timer. The device can indicate in 30 seconds the amount of time a watch will gain or lose in 24 hours and will discover any mechanical defects in the watch.

The appalling number of automobile accidents is a problem which worries all thinking people. No matter how careful a driver you may be, you are always at the mercy of the unpredictable actions of others.

The California State Automobile Association is launching a campaign of public education to popularize the slogan, "Check Your Driving—Check Your Car—Check Accidents!" This is a program which we can all actually do something about. Unconsciously we set examples for others. If you check your driving and check your car you may influence your neighbor to do the same, thus protecting him and yourself as well as others.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Letters to the editor seem to be quite the thing. We can be very thankful that we live in a country where we still have a free press. These are days of change. There are many things that interest the voter. One of the saddest things that I have noted lately is the apathy of the voters. Questions of great importance are being passed on by a very small percentage of the registered voters. Right at this time the political pot is really boiling. If your finger isn't in that pot don't blame anyone but yourself.

There is no question that should take precedence over the welfare of our children. The board of trustees of the Campbell Union Elementary school are planning to take better care of the children of this district. They are asking the approval of a bond issue in the amount of $325,000.00 for the purchase of land and equipment and the building of two new schools. They feel that certain things must be done if our school is to go on serving the district as it should. They have made plans to take care of the increase in school population in the very best possible way. I think every one is familiar with the need and the plans. Be sure to express yourself at the polls on May 24.

These trustees are friends of yours. They live here as part of our community and are ready to shoulder their share of the cost. You elected them, feeling that they were the right men. You made no mistake. Give them a vote of confidence and authorize this bond issue with an overwhelming majority. The voters in the Cambrian District backed up their trustees. Surely we can back up ours.

These trustees are guided to a great extent by the school law of the State of California. Higher school officials, which we have elected, try to interpret these laws and adjust them to the needs of the local communities.

There are several things that I wonder about. I wonder why the voters in this district didn't come out in large numbers when the special meeting was called at the grammar school? That meeting gave you the facts and answered all the questions. That meeting was very favorable to the bond issue. I was there. Were you?

Then I wonder why we worry so much about our taxes. I have always contended that we get more for our tax dollar than any other dollar we spend. Money spent on education has more value to our civilization, certainly, than money spent for many of the things we have in our midst today Usually the voter who refuses tc spend a few dollars on a program of community betterment, will spend much more on things that are absolutely harmful to himself and the community.

The Campbell District is not the only one that needs to expand to take care of this population increase. Every school in the county is fairly bulging at the seams. We have splendid schools that are attracting an unprecedented population growth. We simply have to care for that growth. We are spending thousands of dollars to tell the world about our wonderful valley. The people are coming. We must take care of the children.

"That all of us should think alike about this matter is unthinkable, but it would help a lot if all of us would just think." — Optimeter.

HERBERT M. SHADLE.

Editor:

Few taxpayers know that our Grammar School District extends right across Stevens Creek Road to the boundaries of Santa Clara. It is an absolute impossibility for Campbell to provide sufficient accommodation for the children who will be living in the large new subdivisions which are now being built or contemplated. If we are to vote money to take care of these outlying districts, we should demand to know what will happen to these schools when these new districts decide to join either San Jose or Santa Clara.

If increased facilities are necessary, why not spend the money in enlarging our present schools which could be done with considerably less expense, and at the same time secure the best results, or build another school on land available in close proximity.

I think the bond question is being rushed without giving the voters an opportunity to properly consider the matter. I therefore would advise that we all vote "No" on school bonds at this time.

Additional Funds Voted For Recreation in Los Gatos

To be used for salary for a full-time assistant for the recreation director in Los Gatos, an additional $500 was voted by the Town Council. The recreational program will start May 15 and is planned to run 12 and 15 hours a day for all age groups.

Also at a cost of $500, it was voted to purchase a two-way radio for the new police car. Los Gatos' other police car is equipped with a receiving set.

SENATORS URGE RULE CHANGE

WASHINGTON — Ten Senators —Democrats and Republicans— got together secretly the other day to study that most sacred of all sacred cows—Senate rules. Behind their meeting was the conviction that die-hard Dixie Democrats can block nay measure they oppose via the filibuster, and that the majority must rule if democracy is to function in the U. S. A.

The secret meeting took place after senators received a flood of letters both for and against the attempt by Wayne Morse, Oregon Republican, to secure passage of the anti-poll tax bill through unanimous consent of the Senate. Only senators on the floor at the time Morse attempted this strategy were Morse himself and Republican William Langer of North Dakota.

Liberal Democrat Warren Magnuson of Seattle, Wash., was presiding. Had he immediately asked senators if there was objection, there would have been none and the anti-poll tax bill would have passed Morse had identified the bill only by number, so Magnuson did not at once recognize it. But, even if he had, probably he would have hesitated to pass a controversial bill without debate.

He was rescued from this dilemma by Senator Ernest MacFarland, Arizona Democrat, who quickly came to the floor and objected.

Since then, Senate mail has been strong with ltters both objecting to the Morse attempt as trickery and supporting Morse on the ground that this strategy was no more unfair than the filibuster.

Regardless of the above merits, a bipartisan group of ten Senators had determined that Senate rules must be changed. They seek to limit debate on any single bill to ten days, which would bring up the anti-poll tax bill, already passed by the House, before the Senate recesses. They are thinking also of bringing up legislation to create a permanent FEPC—provided they succeed in winning their amendment to the Senate rules.

The ten senators are: Democrats — Pepper (Fla.), Magnuson (Wash.), Guffey (Pa.), Glen Taylor (Idaho), Huffman (Ohio), Kilgore (W. Va., and Mead (N. Y.); Republicans — Ferguson (Mich.), Knowland (Cal.), and Capper (Kan).

FINAL PEARL HARBOR REPORT

Believe it or not, but the long-awaited reports on the Pearl Harbor investigation at last are being whipped into shape. They will not be published until around June, but here is the inside story on how the final verdict is shaping up.

The Democratic majority on the committee, led by Senator Alben Barkley of Kentucky, will absolve the two top military leaders in Washington—Ge.n George Marshall and Chief of Navay Operations Adm. Harold R. Stark—of major responsibility. They will receive some minor rebukes, especially for poor co-ordination of army and navy intelligence; but nothing serious.

Democratic members of the committee also will absolve the State department of any blame and will let major blame rest where the original Roberts report contended it belonged—on the shoulders of army and navy commanders in the Hawaiian area — General Short and Admiral Kimmel.

Republican members of the committee will file a sharply worded minority report upholding Short and Kimmel and charging (1) that Short and Kimmel weren't sufficiently advised by Washington about intercepted Jap messages presaging the Pearl Harbor attack; and (2) that the two officers weren't provided with enough long-range patrol planes to spot the Jap fletet.

PATTON'S DIARY

The war's stormiest hero, Gen. George S. Patton, was the center of many a controversy before he died. But today the War department is still sitting on one of the hottest of Patton's hot potatoes—the general's secret diary.

Only a few people in the War department and the Patton family know it, but the famous general kept a careful diary all during the Normandy campaign, jotting down his frank comments about the Allies and even about his superior officers. Some of the comments just about burned up the page.

General Patton especially paid his compliments to the famous British field marshal, Montgomery, when he criticized with almost the same bluntness as the soldier in the Sicilian hospital whom he slapped.

Stone was kicked upstairs from the Justice department to the Supreme court by Coolidge when Stone dared move against Andrew Mellon's aluminum trust.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

The Campbell Union Grammar School District was organized in 1920 as a consolidated school district for the purpose of providing educational advantages which were not available to the pupils in the several scattered schools. We wished to give our children the same opportunities as those enjoyed by children in the city schools, a health program, a school nurse, dental inspection, musical instruction both instrumental and vocal, departmental classes, kindergarten, sewing, cooking, opportunity classes, rest periods for those in need, and a transportation system.

The voters gave their approval to this plan and school bussss were purchased to transport the lower grade pupils to the Meridian and Hamilton District schools. The higher grade pupils were brought to the Campbell school. Nine acres of land were purchased and construction was started on the present school This structure was completed early in 1922 and the old district schools were then discontinued. All pupils were then transported to Campbell and we were happy because transporting the children back and forth to the various schools proved an expensive undertaking.

The new school was financed by a bond issue of $155,000, and the sale of the three old district schools. Farsighted plans were then made for development of the plans to meet future needs. A tax was levied each year for capital improvements, 15 cents on each $100 assessed valuation, to provide future expansion, new classrooms and equipment. As time went on, additions to the present building were constructed and about three acres of additional land was purchased for further expansion. All of this was paid for with the 15 cents tax mentioned above. In 1940, when my health failed and I had to give up my trusteeship, this capital tax for expansion was abandoned. In 1945 a tax of 90 cents had to be levied to raise about $56,000 in one year, which went towards the construction of six new modern classrooms with an improved heating system.

Has our consolidated system been a success? Let us look at the results. When our plant was built, it was regarded as the finest and most modern of rural elementary schools in California and possibly in the United States. It has given every child in the district the advantages sought for in consolidation. Under the able guidance of the principal and competent teachers, the childrens' educational opportunities were equal to, or better, than those enjoyed in the cities. But the advantages have not been for the children alone. The parents have had the opportunity of taking part in the fine P. T. A. organization resulting. They have become acquainted with other parents throughout the district and, united, have achieved many additional benefits for their children, such as helping to provide the fence along the highway, beautifying the grounds, obtaining musical instruments, establishing a milk fund and lunches for the underprivileged, providing motion pictures for educational purposes, etc. Other organizations, such as the churches and the Kiwanis Club, also found worthy projects for their efforts in connection with the consolidated school. There can be no doubt that our present school system has been of inestimable value to the entire community. It has been the direct cause of most of the growth in Campbell and vicinity. It has, and will continue to increase the desirability of this district as a place to live, thereby increasing the value of our homes. Our present school system was also one of the main motivating reasons for the formation of our sanitary district.

Now let us look at the bond issue and the proposed plan. "Experts" were called in to mke a survey at a cost of $1200. This whole survey can be considered into the three remarkable discoveries made. 1, our population is growing; 2, we will need more schools; 3, if one new school is constructed in the northern part of the district and one is constructed in the southern part, the children living in those areas will be near the new schools. So the proposed plan is to bond ourselves to the limit, disregard all past experience and achievements, and go back to a plan proved wrong 26 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Parent, if that is not enough, let me show you some of the faults of the proposal. To you folks residing in the northern part of the district in particular, and this may apply to all outlying residents, your district is developing into a metropolitan pattern and sooner or later you may find it expedient to join a metropolitan school district or even form your own. How do you like the prospect of having your homes bonded to the limit and then face the possibility of providing more schools, for you may not be able to break off with the new plant? To you folks residing in the central part of the district, how do you relish the prospect of having your homes bonded to the limit and then seeing the outlying district leave our school system with the possibility that they can take the new plans and future expansion with them? Then how will you raise money for your own normal growth when you are already bonded for someone else's school? Is it fair for you to provide new modern facilities which your children will be unable to enjoy? I say to all the people in the district, we do not want to have any children walking up to one mile to school along a narrow road or highway without sidewalks. What will happen to these smaller children in a rainstorm or foggy weather? We have transported our children to and from school for over 25 years and have not had one serious accident. Do we want to have a grammar school filled with small children without fire protection? Don't you think that proper transportation, supervising, teaching, maintenance and duplication of facilities will cost more by the proposed plan?

Let us look for a better solution of our school problem. If we turn this bond issue down, our school board will have to present another plan. Let them consult the people whose money they are spending and whose children are being educated; not some outside "experts" that look at a map and some statistics, point out a few simple and well known facts and then leave the district. We already own additional land, adjacent to our school, not now used for school purposes. More is available and should be purchased now while it is unimproved Then our expansion can continue as needed and the newer facilities will be enjoyed by all of the children throughout the district. Then our consolidated district which has been so successful in the past, will be prepared to provide the best of educational facilities to educate our children successfully in the future.

I ask the people to vote no on this present bond issue.

Campbell Scholarship Trip

By NORVA INGRAM

On April the 24th, the Scholarship Federation of Campbell High took their annual "day off" from school and took a trip to San Francisco. The trip seemed predestined for the type of bad luck which makes it fun. The group missed the train and had to wait for the next one, which was, of course, the train which stops at every crossing.

Upon arriving in San Francisco it was found that everyone was a little vague about which trolley car to take. By trial and error the group finally found the Golden Gate Park or maybe it was vice versa. By consulting the Boy Scout handbook and climbing the nearest tree, the museum was finally sighted and everyone started his tour of culture

After viewing all the valuable art treasures, the students returned to the city proper where they lunched. The climax of the trip was yet to come, however, for tickets had been obtained for a matinee performance of the stage hit "Oklahoma".

After climbing what seemed to be endless stairs everyone was seated in time for the overture. The musical students were very much impressed by the good voices of the stars. The musical was captivating in its simplicity and everyone enjoyed it.

All the members of the group had tried their best to appear sophisticated and worldly, but there was at least one person they didn't fool. As they were leaving the theater, a lady was overheard remarking to her companion that she had noticed a group of children from the country at the performance!

After that crushing defeat everyone went to dinner. The pretense of sophithication was given up and the students even bought all-day suckers. The conclusion of the day's mishaps was missing the train for San Jose. But everyone finally got home, tired, but happy.

Moreland School Notes

BETTY PIERCE, Editor

The boys of Moreland played with Campbell at Campbell's home diamond, Thursday, May 9. It was a very hard game for both sides, but Campbell came out on top with eight points and Moreland "Tigers" seven. Mr. Tindall was coach, and a very good one. And so this ends another good game until next week.

The game with Campbell was a practice game, to get warmed up for Cambrian. We will have our last league game at Cambrian, May 16.

On May 10, 1946, Girl Scout Troop 31 went to Mount McPherson on the summit. They stayed over night at the American Youth Hostels house. They had weinies for supper, then told gruesome ghost stories. Half of them were afraid to go to sleep that night.

Next morning after breakfast they went up to the local lookout tower. There was a little humming bird trapped in the tower. They examined, photographed and released the bird. After lunch they climbed Castle Rocks. Mrs. J. Peterson and Mrs. P. Montmorency were the leaders. Mr. J. Peterson was nature counsellor on the trip and therefore added much of value and interest.

The girls who went on the trip were: Bernice Teixiera, Gwen Robertson, Haucko Ogata, Irene Hill, Ruth Martin, Jeanie, Sharon and Sheila Peterson.

Girl Scouts Make Mother's Day Presents

Girl Scout Troop 25, under the direction of Mrs. Sharon Parker, leader, made placques for their mothers last week. These were made with wood-burning on one side and decalcomanias on the other.

The group is continuing with their Red Cross work at each meeting. One of the members, Paula Ferguson, has left to make her home in Oregon.

Poppy Day Friday, May 24th

There is a story behind every one of the little red poppies which the citizens of Campbell will wear in honor of the war dead on Friday, May 24, Poppy Day.

"As they are made by hand, no two flowers are exactly alike. Some come from the hands of men who were hurt 28 years ago in the battles of the first World War. Others have ben shaped by young veterans, injured in Europe or in the Pacific in the second conflict, who made poppies this year for the first time. If we could know the stories of all those veterans, old and young, they would make an epic of service and suffering for the security of America," said Mrs. Clara Fagalde, chairman.

"Making the poppies has two important benefits for the disabled veterans. First, it enables them to earn money. The American Legion Auxiliary pays them for every poppy they make. To actually earn some money again is an encouraging experience for these men, after long months of helplessness. Most of them send the money home to their families.

"Second, the work is valuable as occupational therapy. It occupies their hands and minds and helps them get well.

"It is hoped that everyone who puts on a poppy on Poppy Day will look closely at the little flower and think of the men who make the poppies, what they have been through and what they are still enduring because of their war service. Then it will be understood that the poppy is not just a machine-tag, but a carefully shaped symbol of remembrance made by the disabled in honor of their departed comrades," stated the Auxiliary Poppy chairman.

Women Enjoy Garden Tea

The setting for the May garden party held last Thursday in the Congregational church parlors, was literally a flower garden surrounded with white lattice trellises twined with long sprays of Paul Scarlet roses. A lawn swing and outdoor furniture bore out the garden effect. Within the garden were buffet tables covered with gay red and blue checked cloths, and laden with trays of picnic food, one of the chief items being small rolls enclosing "pint size" wieners.

Preceding the social hour a delightful program was enjoyed in the auditorium, and here also flowers in abundance had been attractively arranged.

Mrs. Bertha Farnham and Mrs. Grace Coombs were co-chairmen in arranging the function, with Mrs. Dorothy Brasch in charge of the kitchen. Mrs. Eliza Jeffers is leader of Group One which sponsored the party.

Cambrian Home and School Club Installs Officers

Installation of officers for the coming year was featured at the recent meeting of the Cambrian Home and School Club. Mrs. Clara Price conducted the installation of the following: president, Mrs. Roberta Daniel; vice-president, Mrs. Evelyn Nigl; secretary, Mrs. Julie Long; treasurer, Mrs. Lily La Veque; auditor, Mrs. Violette Gripenstraw; parliamentarian, Mrs. Heen Doerr; and historian, Mrs. Veronica Stoner.

Plans were made for the annual luncheon honoring the teachers of Cambrian school and highlighted by a farewell to Mrs. Anna James who is retiring from the faculty.

Sea Scouts Have Physical

On Monday evening, 8:30 p. m., the newly formed Sea Scout ship, sponsored by the local American Legion Post met at Scouts Hall for further organization and physical examination. Dr. Ortman, 18 Thornton Way, graciously gave his time and examined 10 young men. Those examined were: Doyle Masone, Henry Ames, Chas. Livingston, Paul Harris, Duane Masone, Vernon Farris, Sherwood Rogers, Garland Rogers, Mervin Nelson, Doug Hughes. Four of the five committeemen were present: Lou Fourtane, Gwyn Leach, Jimmie Peet and Bill Weeks.

Local Candidates And What They Say

In justice to Ethan Lanphear, candidate for re-election as constable, let me say that when he wants to be he is both a landscape artist and a poet.

On the latter point, years ago when we two were associated in a general merchandise store we promised a chunky high school girl who was working in San Francisco during vacation that we'd cheer her up with a composite letter. What Ethan wrote was a grand characterization:

We are the boards u pon the floor
Of celebrated Blaine's Department Store;
We feel the heavy weight no more

We are the chairs on which she'd sit
And wear our corners bit by bit;
We miss the ready flow of wit,

We are the cans of food complete
She never knew of which she'd eat;
Before us stands a vacant seat,

We are Blaine's clerks that dish the food
To most of Campbell's hungry brood;
We've all contracted a lonesome mood,

Last word from Eva, long married and a mother, was that she still treasured those verses.

JOHN D. BLAINE,

Civic Leaders Join Howser Campaign

Many prominent civic leaders in various communities in this part of the State have become members of the Northern California executive committee for Fred Howser for attorney general, it was announced this week by the San Francisco Howser headquarters for Northern California.

Among these leaders who have accepted chairmanships of county committees organized to work for the election of Howser as attorney general, both at the Democratic and Republican primaries June 4, are:

Ray Manwell, Marysville attorney, Yuba-Sutter counties; C. Raymond Clinch, Grass Valley i nvestment banker, Nevada County; Warren P. Johnston, Auburn industrial enginer, Placer County; Ernest Clewe, Oroville attorney and chairman of the Republican county central committee, Butte County; and George Growney, Red Bluff auto distributor, Tehama County.

It was pointed out by this committee that although Fred Howser is only 41 years old, he has been in the public service 12 years. He was under 30 years of age when he became deputy city prosecutor of Long Beach, in which office he served six years. He followed this by being elected to the State Assembly and was re-elected for a second term. He was Assemblyman when he was appointed district attorney of Los Angeles County.

The committee also stated that Howser's record of success in this office, the Nation's second largest law-enforcement organization, won him the honor of being the first man in 16 years to be elected to it at the primaries. This occurred in 1924, when he defeated both of his opponents by a substantial majority.

Friends Support Lyon

There are about 400 men, leaders in all walks of life and residing in every part of the State, who have served with Charles W. Lyon, Speaker of the Assembly, during his extended public service. They are all personal friends of the Speaker and the great majority are active supporters of his candidacy for lieutenant governor.

Assemblyman Sam L. Collins of Fullerton points out that Charley Lyon has been Speaker of the Assembly during the entire incumbency of Earl Warren as governor, and has given valuable aid in shaping and steering all the liberal and constructive legislation which has been enacted by the Legislature during the past four years.

Campbell High PTA Convene in Last Session of Year

"We are letting three things come toward us with the rapidity that Hitler invaded Europe; movies, radio, liquor. Juvenile delinquency proves that homes have less influence now than ever before." Mrs. W. H. Rigdon, guest speaker at the Campbell High School PTA meeting on May 8, made this statement in speaking of delinquency and the contributing factors toward this rapidly increasing problem. She urged that PTA's plan some constructive work on these phases especially. Mrs. W. Rigdon was presented to the members by Mrs. Clarence Fagalde.

Mrs. Raymond Flagg, newly elected president, presided over the routine business session. Mrs. Rex Fuller opened the meeting with song and reading, "A Mother's Privilege". Mrs. Henry Jensen, study group chairman, reported on the State agricultural demonstration held in Saratoga, which was attended by many of the Campbell unit.

Reports on the recent State PTA convention held in San Francisco, and a brief resume of the platform of the Parent-Teacher Congress were given by Mesdames Clarence Fagalde, Alfred Weltz, Anthony Jurras, J. W. Knowles and Raymond Flagg.

Following the business session, the members adjourned for a social hour with the faculty members serving as hostesses.

Preceding the regular meeting the executive board met in Superintendent James Dent's office. Recommendations were made for a rummage sale and a reception for the teachers, both dates to be announced later.

Campbell Grammar PTA Holds Last Session

The last session of the Campbell Grammar PTA was held Tuesday, May 7, in the school auditorium with Mrs. J. W. Knowles presiding. The invocation was given by Rev. E. Carlson of the Congregational church, and the pledge was led by Miss Emma Barzone, followed by the group singing "God Bless America." The glee club entertained with three songs under the direction of Miss D. Wilkinson.

Mrs. Christl Scneider was chairman of the day. Mrs. Paul Becker showed two films—the first "What Happened to Our Sugar", showing why sugar must be rationed for some time, and the other, "Something We Didn't Eat."

W. C. Henley spoke of the coming school bond election and answered questions pertaining to the school bonds and voting precincts. Mrs. J. W. Knowles gave highlights of the State PTA convention held in San Francisco last week, and Mrs. Ralph Shafel repeated a most interesting story told at the convention by Mrs. Spencer Tracy concerning "Children Deaf from Birth."

The room count was won by Miss M. Singleton's kindergarten.

The group adjourned to the cafeteria for refreshments served by the mothers of the first and kindergarten grades.

Busy Days for Ocawasin Camp Fire Group

Ocawasin Camp Fire Girls are working hard for advancement now before summer vacation.

Janet Dent passed her first rank, that of trail seeker last Saturday. The group is especially proud of Patty Powell who is working to pass her firemaker's rank, the third step in Camp Fire, and who gave her firemaker's dinner last Thursday evening. The requirement for this dinner is that it be planned, purchased, cooked and served by the girl seeking rank and that she clean up the muss afterwards. Several others expect to pass rank on June 1.

At the meeting last Friday an election for new officers was held. The following were elected: president, Verna Jean Miller; vice-president, Patty Powell; secretary, Shirley McCallister; treasurer, Janis Henley; scribe, Mary Lou Cline.

Jewels Return From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jewel have returned from a week's vacation, made by air, to the southern part of the State, where they visited friends in Idylwild and relatives and friends in San Diego. A highlight of their trip was the annual outdoor pageant, "Ramona" in Hemet.

Don't Be Fooled!

CONGRESSMAN ANDERSON

The Political Action Committee plays a smart game. On the one hand it spends thousands and thousands of dollars for propaganda to elect its own candidate to Congress. On the other hand it says, "Congressman Anderson is sure to be re-elected."

The purpose is to lull the people into false confidence. If it looks too easy, the vast majority of the people will sit back and relax. And while they're celebrating, the Political Action Committee will put on the pressure to elect its own candidate.

Don't be fooled. You want a Congressman to represent you . . . not the Political Action Committee. As long as Jack Anderson is in Congress, you are assured of this representation. But don't relax! The Political Action Committee will take advantage of the slightest opportunity!

Letters to the Editor

Editor:

On May 24, 1946, the question of issuing and selling school bonds to the extent of $325,000.00 will be decided at the polls.

No one will deny that the population of Campbell Union school district has increased by leaps and bounds. New facilities are needed —but what kind? Each time a new addition has been constructed it has been inadequate. Why? Because a long range building program has never existed.

The school board now proposes that two new primary-intermediate schools be erected to ease crowded conditions and eliminate transportation of students in those districts.

Our school district now transports students who reside within ten minutes walk from Burbank Elementary school. A large percentage of transported students are concentrated in this area. San Jose, rapidly expanding westward, will soon engulf Burbank and Bradley Manor, where one thousand home are actually under construction at the present, with many more contemplated. Under government building regulations these houses are exclusively for veterans. This means young people—and children. Assuming an average of only one child per home, what is the result? In that area alone, an elementary school the size of Campbell elementary, will be necessary. A nine-teacher school in that district would be inadequate by the time the land is purchased and plans formulated—before construction is ever begun.

As we are given to understand, a seven-teacher school is suggested for the southern section. This is a much poorer district. If forced to give facts and figures, anyone trained in school administration would undoubtedly admit that this district could not support itself.

Remember this: Any bonds voted for schools by the present school district must be paid off by this district. We will continue to pay for twenty years, even in event of annexation of the new schools by some outside district or community.

Contrary to the statement by our District Superintendent, Mr. Henley, Campbell can enlarge its present facilities efficiently, but only by a planned program of expansion, not by two or three additional rooms several years after needed. This expansion would be paid for by residents of our district and still used by them after our outlying territories have been annexed away.

It seems to me that during the years of the war when the population trend was clearly visible, our school board should have selected proposed properties, formulated its plans and organized its bond drive for a program that would have been a community asset. Instead, they suggest that we pay for twenty years on bonds for schools our children will, very likely, never attend.

Before you vote yes or no on a short-sighted program, think this over carefully. Is poor planning worth $325,000.00?

—By G. L. Standish, who has fulfilled State of California requirements for School Administration Credentials.

Editor:

For the last five years you have been faced with crowded grammar school conditions, and each time we have built a new addition it has only afforded us temporary relief.

On May 24th you will vote as to whether you are going to continue to allow this method to exist or demand that the school board do something more concrete and give us permanent relief.

To vote yes for the school bonds will give us only temporary relief, as within two years we will be faced with a crowded condition here in Campbell.

Back in 1919 when this school district was consolidated it was for the sole purpose of unifying the school district; for it is generally understood that by only such a procedure you are able to receive the benefits of specialized training. And also safety was a big factor. The district is infested with forty-foot roads and no sidewalks. Isn't it better to transport children to school than allow them to walk to school on forty-foot roads without any sidewalks? It was thought so back in 1919 and our record of accidents for those intervening years is proof of this.

It is time now for the taxpayers of Campbell to demand that the school board give us permanent relief in our crowded school condition, and by voting NO on the School Bonds May 24 will show that Campbell demands the enlargement of our present school property.

Mother's Day Tea Enjoyed

The Mother's Day tea given by the Campbell American Legion Auxiliary, No. 596, Saturday afternoon, May 11, was a delightful affair. The Campbell Country Woman's club room was beautifully decorated in the springtime theme—roses, iris,, and lilies composed the main decoration, while lighted candles adorned the altar and exquisitely set tea-table. A large bowl of American Legion poppies, on a stand, near the door, was most attractive and brought to mind the Poppy Drive, which is to be held in the near future. Each guest received a lovely red or white rose-bud.

Taking part in the program were Miss Mildred Weeks, accompanied by Miss Lorraine Wood; Miss Shirley Courtney, accompanied by Miss Aileen Ciraulo; Miss Claire Booker, accompanied by Mrs. Earl Booker; and Manuel Vierra, accompanied by Mrs. Dean Chamberlain.

Mrs. Clara Fagalde and Mrs. Evabelle Fuller presided at the tea-table and were assisted in serving by the Junior Girls. The committee, responsible for the afternoon, was composed of the following members: Mesdames Ellen Lanphear, Gertrude Wood, Evabelle Fuller, Bertha Jensen, Hazel Wilson, Clara Fagalde and Arrah Peck.

"Go West, young man, Go West"
—said Horace Greeley

Good Advice in Greeley's Time
BETTER STILL TODAY!

If Horace Greeley could look down upon the Northern California of today he would be content—his faith and vision of nearly a century ago justified a thousand-fold.

And as he saw then the unlimited possibilities offered by the undeveloped West, the canny old editor would find here today new promise of rich reward for American enterprise.

Northern California is rapidly coming of age industrially. We have the raw materials, the power, the fuel. We have skilled labor and an ever-increasing population. We have markets close-by and overseas. We have a war-tested transportation system to serve these markets.

Business and industrial men of the East are watching and studying our growth here. It was to keep this interest alive, to stimulate action, to attract new business and industry to this area, that your gas and electric company has carried an extensive advertising campaign to sell Northern California to the Nation. It has been a factual, constructive and cooperative effort in the interest of all Northern California communities.

Wed at Candlelight Ceremony

Last Friday evening in an impressive candlelight ceremony performed before a circular bower of roses in the Woman's Club, Miss Reba Lee Fryar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fryar, became the bride of Jack E. Chappell. The Rev. Lawrence Osborne of the Campbell Methodist church officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, A. E. Wallace of Fresno, wore a white jersey dress with navy blue accessories and a corsage of baby orchids with pale blue ribbons.

Acting as the matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. A. E. Wallace, who chose for the occasion a chartreuse suit with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Raymond (Bud) Mathis performed the best man's duties for the bridegroom.

Following the nuptial rites a reception was held at the club. Mrs. Joe Meckler served punch and the bride's mother, attired in a dusty pink suit with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias, served the wedding cake. Also assisting were Mrs. A. E. Wallace and Mrs. E. B. Robinson of Los Angeles, sister of the bride's mother, who came north to attend the ceremony.

The bride's brother, Ralph Fryar, and his family of Porterville, were unable to attend the wedding due to an accident, but arrived Sunday for Mother's Day.

After a short wedding trip spent at Santa Cruz the young people will make their home in Campbell.
